1.  opened the meeting. Members reported manhours expended in preparation for this meeting.

2. The team then continued its deliberations and the development and specification of subject categories for content control.  distributed a draft of subject categories reflecting changes proposed by the team at the last meeting. A detailed discussion of the breakdown and specification of the Economics category ensued during which further changes and revisions were proposed.

3. The team then took up the Science and Technology (S&T) category. The breakdown of the proposed S&T category was compared with the breakdown in the  Subject Category List. The need for further specification of S&T subcategories in the proposed scheme was noted.  suggested that the  list be examined and its headings used wherever appropriate. Wherever  categories are not appropriate, we should be able to give the reason.

4.  was requested to draft a general introduction to the subject content control scheme which would incorporate guidance in using or applying the scheme. An example of the type of information to be included in the general introduction was the instruction to use the General subcategory when more than two other subcategories of, for example, Economics were covered in the item being content controlled.

25X1 5. Mr. Whipp distributed a draft paragraph on the use of the terms "Communism" and "Communist" in the Content Control System which was requested by [ ] at the previous task team meeting.

25X1 6. [ ] distributed three working papers on "area" content control. He noted that the working paper dated 25 March and its enclosure had in many respects been superseded by the other two papers. He also stated that substantive explanation on the background, basis and approach would be provided when these papers, or follow-on papers, were reviewed by the team as a group.

7. The next meeting of the task team will be at 0930 hours, 11 May 1965 at the Department of State.
